

Youth's Department.

Conducted by Lottie Melinger.

Be Thorough.

Whatsoever you find to do,
Do it, boys, with all your might!
Never be a little true,
Or a little in the right.
Trifles even
Trifles make the life of man;
So in all things,
Great or small things,
Be as thorough as you can.

Let no speck of dirt remain
Spotless truth and honor bright!
I'd not give a fig for him
Who says any lie is white!
He who falters
Twists or alters,
Little atoms when we speak,
May deceive me,
But, believe me,
To himself he is a sneak!

Help the weak if you are strong,
Love the old if you are young;
Own a fault if you are wrong,
If you're angry, hold your tongue.

In each duty
Lies a beauty,
If your eyes you do not shut,
Just as surely
And securely
As a kernel in a nut!

Love with all your heart and soul—
Love with eye and ear and touch;
That's the moral of the whole,
You can never love too much!

'Tis the glory
Of the story
In our babyhood begun
(Our hearts without it,
(Never doubt it),
Are as worlds without a sun.

If you think a word would please,
Say it, if it is true;
Words may give delight with ease,
When no act is asked from you.

Words may often
Soothe and soften,
Gild a joy or heal a pain;
They are treasures
Yielding pleasures
It is wicked to retain!

Whatsoever you find to do,
Do it then with all your might;
Let your prayers be strong and true—
Prayer, my lads, will keep you right.

Pray in all things,
Great and small things,
Like a Christian gentleman!
And forever,
Now or never,
Be as thorough as you can.

Our Scripture Lesson For Aug. 10th.
Read Sam. 15: 14.

It has been twelve years since David felt the deep repentance of which we read last Sunday. As the prophet Nathan had foretold, David had trouble in his own family, as Ammon, one of his sons, commits a crime and is murdered by his brother, Absalom. It is Absalom's scheme to get the attention of the people drawn from his father and turned to him, and by courting popular favor and speaking illy of his father's management, he hopes to succeed to the throne.

Absalom was anxious to make a show. He went out with fine chariots, had men run before him, and drove fast horses. While it is well enough to drive fast when necessary, yet we should never drive fast for show, nor yet for our pleasure. It is wrong to get pleasure by giving pain to others, and you know, we would be kind to brutes. Because we dare do a thing is not saying we should do it. Remember this, boys and girls, never to abuse a confidence.

Give your confidence to your parents; never try to deceive them in any way, and you will be all the stronger to withstand temptations when they must be met.

The reason Ahithophel deserted the throne to follow Absalom, was because he thought he would be successful. Follow duty, success will follow. It is never safe to let go your hold on a lower limb to reach a higher. Rather, by the lower reach a higher.

David was not a coward, he did not leave Jerusalem because he was afraid to fight; he knew how dangerous was his ground, that he was not prepared to meet with an armed force. It is not always bravery to be willing to fight. Oftentimes it is bravest to resist a desire to fight.

Remember the Golden Text. How did Absalom abuse the confidence of his friends?

What did Absalom really want to do at Hebron.

What did the messenger say to David?

A Word to the Dew-drops.
It rejoices me and also many other friends of the cause, to see you take hold of this work, and by your zeal and kindly words exhort one another.

My dear children, you do not only gratify your friends, but you do that which will bring rest to you in maturer days. You will have that which comes with duty performed.

Through moving brother Roberts' article was mislaid, and you did not get to see it, as I promised. I hope you will excuse the delay, and be all the more anxious to read it and heed the lesson it teaches.

Letter from Aunt Laura.

My Dear Young Friends:

It has been quite a long while since I enjoyed the pleasure of writing to you. Oh, how eagerly I have watched from week to week to see who would write for the Youth's Department. There are new names being added every week, so that if we are obliged to remember them all by name, we would feel somewhat overwhelmed; but I always think of you all together as a bright and joyous band of children. I love to hear your names too, but your words are more precious, and easier to remember. The thought of being remembered by you, and the hope that those who received the pictures were pleased, affords me much satisfaction, but if I were sure you would all remember what I am about to tell you, my pay would be much greater.

Brother Watson's sermon to you was real good, only I think a little too short. He says: "First love God, then father, mother, and friends." With few exceptions, it is an easy matter for children to love their parents; but to love God, whom they never saw, nor know anything about, as far as their own experience is concerned, is not so easy. Although I was taught to pray as early in life as I can remember, I know I did not always love God. I believe you would all love God more than you do your parents if you knew how much more he loves and pities, and is able to help you, than they. It is hard for children of tender years to realize that fact, but it is nevertheless true.

My dear children, I would have you remember that God wants you to love him, because he loves you, and is preparing a beautiful home for you when your work in this world is finished. By hearing the gospel preached, and studying the New Testament, you will find out what that work is, and how to do it. Do not think of God as a ruler, who will sometime take delight in sending his disobedient subjects away into everlasting punishment; because the word teaches us that He takes no delight in the death of sinners, but would rather all should come to Him and live. When you have once learned to know something of His protecting power, His willingness and ability to comfort you when in distress, I know you will love him then. Some time ago, as a little child was playing on the sidewalk, a dog came romping by, frightening the child so that its screams attracted the attention of its father who was near by. After flinging a stone after the dog he approached his child, speaking soothing words, and taking his handkerchief kindly wiped away its tears. Although 'twas but the rough hand of a blacksmith, we were sure a heart full of love and protection was behind it. It was an instructive lesson as well as a beautiful sight. You know none of us, even older people, claim to be any other than the Lord's children. We have our doubts, fears and discouragements, which sometimes make us weep and cry for help; but like that little child, our troubles soon vanish, when Father speaks to us and wipes our tears away. All this God has promised to do, and he is not forgetful of his promises.

Letters From The Children.

Dear Editor: I see so many little letters in the EVANGELIST and I thought I would write one too, and tell something about our Sunday school. We have a good Sunday school. My mamma is my teacher, and uncle William Crofford is superintendent. Eight scholars of our Sunday school joined the church this year. My brother Charlie and I are among the number, for we read in the Bible remember thy Creator in the days of thy youth. Our day school will begin in September; we have nine months school. Last term I didn't miss one day, and was promoted twice during the term. I am eleven years old. I remain your little friend,

MINNIE CROFFORD.

Johnstown Pa.

Your little letter, Minnie, helps to illustrate our Sunday school lesson. You have been an obedient little girl and have been blessed in many ways. Your mamma was careful in her training, that she teach you truths to be used in after life, and has been blessed by your obedience. Your letter, both composition and penmanship, proves your promotion to be deserved. Hope you may enjoy writing for the Youth's department.

Dear Lottie:

I will try and write again for the paper, for I love to read the letters from the little girls and boys. It has been some time since I last wrote. I did not forget it, but was much interested all the time. We have quite a lot of nice flowers; they look very pretty when they are all out in bloom. It will not be long till my school commences. I will be glad. I will send you a dime, for I want the Dew-Drop club to succeed. My teachers' name is John Miers. Now, little boys and girls, send in your dimes for the Dewdrop. It don't cost much; we will not miss it. It will help a good work along, and you know we should all be engaged in helping some good work.

NELLY CLARK.

Cambridge City, Ind.

I would like very much to see your flowers, Nelly. I am glad to learn that they do not bloom unseen, but that their beauty is enjoyed. I hope you may be successful at school this year, and that it will give you work.

The dime is the help that you desired it should be, and shows your willingness to help good works. I trust you may never lose the interest that you now have in this good cause. It is true that we miss the half of living until we live for others.

PE-RU-NA

Is a new remedy, originally compounded and introduced to the medical profession and then to the public at large, by S. B. Hartman, M. D. It has prescribed it over 40,000 patients with the most gratifying results.

Its effect upon the system is entirely unlike that of any other remedy, and is the only medicine needed in almost every disease to which flesh is subject. It has no equal.

PE-RU-NA is composed of purely vegetable ingredients, and is a powerful medical authority, a great remedy in itself. Dr. Hartman has succeeded in extracting and combining the active principles of these ingredients into one simple compound, which perfectly cures with the Vis Medicatrix Naturae in every disease, and a cure necessarily follows.

There is not an organ it will not reach, nor a disease it will not cure.

Ask your druggist for Dr. Hartman's pamphlet on the "ills of Life." Dr. S. B. Hartman & Co., Columbus, Ohio, U. S. A.

Dr. McNulty made my wife a full set of teeth, upper and lower on rubber, and they fit splendidly and look just like natural teeth, and did not cost me half as much as my neighbors', that were made by Dr. Heyser. I can honestly recommend my friends to Dr. McNulty as he has done as he agreed.
